

Georgia Tech Faculty Honors Committee
Annual Report for 2013-2014
Prepared by Donna C. Llewellyn, Committee Chair

The Faculty Honors Committee's responsibilities are to solicit nominations for and select winners of nine Institute-wide awards. Nominations were due at the end of January, 2014 (delayed a week due to weather issues), and the committee met in mid-February to review the nominations and select the winners. The results of the committee's deliberations were:

- Class of 1934 Distinguished Professor Award: Zhong Lin Wang (Materials Science and Engineering) [NOTE: As specified by the rules of this award, the Committee selected two finalists, from whom the President and Provost selected the winner.]
- Class of 1934 Outstanding Innovative Use of Education Technology Award: Jim Hamblen (Electrical and Computer Engineering)
- Class of 1934 Outstanding Interdisciplinary Activities Award: Bernard Kippelen (Electrical and Computer Engineering)
- Class of 1940 W. Howard Ector Outstanding Teacher Award: Joel Sokol (Industrial and Systems Engineering)
- Class of 1940 W. Roane Beard Outstanding Teacher Award: Michael Stilman (Interactive Computing)
- Junior Faculty Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award: Margaret Kosal (International Affairs)
- Outstanding Professional Education Award: A. P. Saikis Meliopoulos (Electrical and Computer Engineering)
- Outstanding Service Award: Michael Hunter (Civil and Environmental Engineering)
